1. Claim 32 is objected to because of the following informalities: Since claim 32 is drawn to a disk drive it would appear to be properly dependent on claim 31 rather than on claim 29 which is drawn to a method for fabricating a write head. In this office action claim 32 is treated as if dependent on claim 31. However, appropriate correction is required.
2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
  - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.
4. Claims 31 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b or e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over the applicants' own disclosure of the prior art. Claims 31 and 32 are product-by-process claims and accordingly are drawn to a product. That product comprising the claimed disk drive and improved magnetic write head appear to be prior art, particularly as described in page 2 paragraph 2 of the specification of the instant application. The method steps or limitations in the product by process claims are not considered to encompass structure or a product that is different from the prior art as noted above.

In the alternative, the product encompassed in claims 31 and 32 would have been obvious to construct in view of the applicants' disclosure of the prior art, for the purpose of achieving better performance of the disk drive.

5. Claims 1-30 are allowed.
